

Fourteen doctors yesterday appeared for an exam conducted by the Arab Board of Health Specialisations (ABHS) in Bahrain Medical Society (BMS). ABHS examination enables doctors for specialising in specific fields ranging from General, Orthopedic, Plastic and Neurologist Surgeries. The examination is held twice annually in the Kingdom, considering the large numbers of Bahraini doctors applying for it.

The General Organization for Youth and Sports (GOYS) in cooperation with Education Ministry and Bahrain Anti-Smoking Society, organized an Exhibition – Seminar on the occasion of the Global Anti-Smoking Day. Education Ministry's School Health and Treatment Consulting Specialist Ahmed Al Saad highlighted the common reasons of the widespread of smoking in the Bahraini community, partially holding the society, families and schools responsible for it. King Abdullah Medical City Bahrain, the American Mission Hospital, Bahrain Cancer Society and Health Ministry's Health Promoting Directorate contributed in organising the event.

The Rotary Club of Salmaniya held an awards and appreciation ceremony for the Raft Race 2013 (RR2013) sponsors at the Golden Tulip, Manama yesterday. The ceremony organised by the RR2013 Committee and Chairwoman, Sebahat Isik, was attended by the event sponsors and members of other rotary clubs in the Kingdom. A portion of the fund raised through the raft race will be donated towards Diabetes in Children and community projects for the year 2013-2014.

Wife of Indian Ambassador Mala Kumar yesterday handed over the funds raised through the charity gala 'Celebrating 100 years of Bollywood' to Al Rahma Centre for Disabled Care and the Indian Ladies Association (ILA) recreation centre for special needs children, Sneha. Above, Sneha co-ordinators, Bikky Chopra and Usha Govindan, receiving the cheque from Mrs. Kumar in the presence of ILA committee members and Salaam Bahrain Editor and event organiser, Meera Ravi.

A debut dance performance, Arangetram, of 19 students under the banner Ms. Chandradas 'Sreepadam, Noopura Sangamam' will be held at the Jashanmal auditorium, Indian School, Isa Town tomorrow from 5pm. Bharatnatyam, Mohiniattam and Kuchipudi will be performed by the students. The students were trained by Sheena Chandradas. Ninety students from various schools will be performing at the event.

Majlis-e-Fakhr Bahrain, a Literary and Cultural Society devoted to promote Urdu, held a Urdu Poetry recital (Sheri Nashist) on May 24 at Bahrain Pride Trading Centre Hall in Sanad. The event was attended by a large number of Urdu poetry lovers in Bahrain. Above, from left, Adil Ahmed, Shakeel Ahmed, Chief Patron, Dr Ali Athar Khan, Noor Pathan and Secretary Mohammed Salim with poets and organisers.

ICAB Toastmasters club in collaboration with Bahrain Chapter of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (BCICAI) conducted a public speaking and leadership workshop for the BCICAI member's children titled 'Youth Leadership Programme'. During the past six weeks, 23 children from various schools participated and benefited from the workshop that was conducted by experienced Toastmasters from ICAB Toastmasters Club.

Speaking workshop

To mark the completion of the workshop, a finale (Valedictory) will be held tomorrow at BIBF at 3pm. During the event, participants will showcase their skills to an audience which includes District 20 officers of Toastmasters International and BCICAI Managing Committee members.